c) The Operational Creditor submits that, the Corporate Debtor accepted the goods without any demur or any protest or dispute there by further made Part Payments on the invoices. The details of the invoices are as follows:

I. Sr. No 5 to 9 the Corporate Debtor has failed to make any payment.

II. Sr. No 4 has made only part payment.

III. For remaining 3 invoices the Corporate Debtor has made payment of Principal amount with substantial delay.

d) The operational Creditor submits that, the latest reminder sent to the Corporate Debtor was on 14/09/2020 and 28/09/2020 to make payment of pending invoices as on date of letter, as maintained in the books of the Operational Creditor. The emails are attached as Annexure C placed at pp No.29-40 of the Petition.

- e) The Operational Creditor had served a Demand Notice dated 5.11.2020 to the Corporate Debtor which is at pp11 of the Petition in terms of section 8 of the IBC. The Demand Notice was duly served and delivered on corporate debtor dated 07.11.2020 through Speed post. The Corporate Debtor has not replied to the said Demand Notice.
- f) The Operational Creditor in its Written Submissions has stated that it is now settled law that where interest is a part of the agreement between the parties, it is considered to be a part of the Operational Debt. This has been conclusively decided by the Hon'ble NCLAT in para. 4 of its judgement dated 27th July 2018 in Company Appeal No.148 of 2018 in Pavan Enterprises v. Gammon India, wherein the NCLAT has held that "If in terms of any agreement interest is payable to the Operational of Financial Creditor then the debt will include interest". A copy of the judgement is annexed as Exhibit B in Written Submissions.

Findings:

5. It is observed that, the corporate debtor had not filed the reply. Both the parties were directed to file Written Submissions, but only Operational Creditor has filed and the same is taken on record. The case was extensively argued by Counsel from both the sides.
6. The Last date of invoice is 01.02.2020 and the date of filing is 30.12.2020 and it is well within the Limitation. This Bench has jurisdiction to deal with this Company Petition.

7. It is observed by the Bench that the Corporate Debtor had time and again by its letter, invoices and by making part payment acknowledged its liability. Therefore, the Petition made by the Operational Creditor is complete in all respects as required by law There is default by the Corporate Debtor in payment of debt amount. Therefore, we find that it is a fit case for initiation of CIRP against the Corporate Debtor, and that the petition is filed within the limitation period. This Tribunal has jurisdiction to adjudicate the Company Petition filed by the Operational Creditor and that there is a Debt due & payable by the Corporate Debtor. Therefore, the Application filed by the Operational Creditor is liable to be admitted.
8. The application is complete and has been filed under the proper form. The debt amount is more than Rupees One Crore and default of the Corporate Debtor has been established and the application deserves to be admitted.
9. The Operational Creditor has not proposed the Interim Resolution Professional (IRP) in the matter.
10. Under these circumstances, this Tribunal is of the considered opinion that the above company petition is liable to be admitted by passing the following order
